

SO 3.111 Magistrate Judge Referrals

JUDGE DEE D. DRELL

This order shall govern all actions filed in this court and assigned to Judge Dee D. Drell, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Civil Cases

Habeas corpus petitions filed under 28 U.S.C. 2241, 2254 & 2255 and prisoner petitions involving conditions of confinement shall be referred to the assigned magistrate judge for Report and Recommendation, including any evidentiary hearings if needed.

All petitions for review of a denial of a claim for benefits under the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 405(g) shall be referred to the assigned magistrate judge for Report and Recommendation.

All cases arising under ERISA, 29 U.S.C. 1132, shall be referred to the assigned magistrate judge for Report and Recommendation.

Motions to Compel and Motions for Protective Orders shall be referred to the assigned magistrate judge. Other motions shall be referred to Judge Drell.

The assigned magistrate judge is authorized to enter any orders necessary to facilitate review of referred matters, including, but not limited to, orders for the filing of pleadings, motions, and memoranda. The assigned magistrate judge is further authorized to conduct evidentiary hearings.

Criminal Cases

All criminal actions shall be referred to the assigned magistrate judge for disposition of all pretrial matters arising through arraignment, or such other date as the court may direct in any particular case. This reference shall include:

- (1) Arraignments and all other pre-trial proceedings in criminal cases that are authorized by law to be conducted by magistrate judges;
- (2) All proceedings under Fed.R.Cr.P. 3, 4, 5, 5.1, 40(b), and 41 that are authorized by law to be conducted by magistrate judges;
- (3) Proceedings to order release or detention of arrested persons pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3141, et seq.;

(4) All other matters authorized by law.

All proceedings including trial and imposition in petty offense and other misdemeanor cases, subject to the limitations of 18 U.S.C. 3401, (4) shall be referred to the assigned magistrate judge.

The assigned magistrate judge is authorized to enter any orders necessary to facilitate review of referred matters, including, but not limited to, orders for the filing of pleadings, motions, and memoranda. The assigned magistrate judge is further authorized to conduct evidentiary hearings.

Nothing in this order shall preclude Judge Dee D. Drell from withdrawing the reference of any matter.
